Outcomes of VENSIM training evaluation questionnaire

Evaluation of related knowledge and skills

- Understanding of the Addis urban water balance
- Understanding of the usefulness of this model
- Understanding of model properties, inputs and outputs
- Ability to start building own VENSIM model with assistance
- Ability to start building own VENSIM model independently

Bar chart showing evaluations before and after training.
The learning aids were well-suited to the learning objectives
The training methods were well-suited to the learning objectives
The facilitators presented information in a clear manner
I had opportunities to discuss issues of interest to me with the facilitators and other participants
The facilitators had the necessary expertise to answer my questions
The content of the training reflected my context of work
Sufficient time was allowed for each item of training
The difficulty level of today’s training was appropriate